

Starting January 1st, 2025, entrance fees for all Natural Protected Areas in Mexico will double.

This means a 100% increase in park fees nationwide. At Nautilus, for guests not able to take advantage of the discount / exemption we will subsidize the new Socorro park fee, capping the guest portion at US$172 per day. Regardless of currency fluctuations or other variables, no guest in 2025 will pay more than this amount.

The law also creates new discounts. Discounts and Exceptions will be as follows:

Exceptions (No park fee)

- Minors of less than 12 years old
- People with disability (with Medical Certificate)
- Elder people registered as that in the Mexican Institute (INAPAM)
- Retired or pension beneficiary (with certificate to prove it)

75% Discount Revillagigedo Park Fee

- Students and teachers (with actual credential)
- People living in certain cities declared marginal by Government

50% Discount Revillagigedo Park Fee

- Mexican nationals (proof with passport, birth certificate or Mexican ID)
- Non Mexican nationals but residents in Mexico
(Proof of residency via Immigration Agency Credential -temporary or permanent residency)
